Dear Ms. Center:

Being a Senate candidate from District No. 5 and a full time staff employee of a corporation, I have the following question for your consideration and reply.

- Q1. The use of a company vehicle with fixed telephone during the normal working day. Office hours 7:30-4:30 however, responsible for employee action 24 hours each day, 7 days a week. Are any special provisions needed to protect the candidate? Anyone could question me about the campaign at anytime because I am running in the district in which I work.

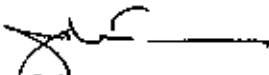

All transportation after normal working hours, will be in my personal vehicle and calls made on my personal cell phone.

- Q2. Casual contacts without campaign materials during normal working days. About one-third of my time is in the field in the district in which I am running. With my job, and after 29 years of service, customers will feel free to talk to me at anytime.

- Q3. It is my understanding that I may use corporate equipment with receipts of payment for the same. My campaign office will be located in my home with all the standard equipment available.

Thank you for your consideration in these matters.

Sincerely,

William Corum
